

Summary of Outreach Plan

Our outreach plan included a printed letter to surrounding neighbors and businesses within 500 square feet, a designated email and hotline number as well as a guided walking tour. We received the names and addresses through a farming list from Chicago Title and Escrow (please see attached list). The letters (please see attached) were sent via mail on 8/21/2018. Setup of email and hotline were on the 8/20/2018.

We only received one email which was sent directly to our architect, Diana Wellenbrink on 8/29/2018. Please see attached email and response.

Our hotline number is 206-681-7188. Please feel free to call the phone number. A copy of the transcript is attached. We haven't received any voicemails but plan on leaving the phone number active throughout the duration of the project.

Our guided walking tour was held on 9/13/2018 at Grumpy D Coffee House – 7001 15th Ave NW- from 9-10:30am. We had 11 attendees and the meeting lasted for a full 90 minutes. Please see attached sign in sheet and meeting notes. Most of the attendees were neighbors that back the project and with whom we will share a property line. We started the meeting by introducing ourselves. We had two representatives from the development team there – Brandon Kamin and Morgan Royse and the architect Diana Wellenbrink. We suggested walking the site but the consensus from the neighbors was that they were more interested in the presentations rather than walking the site. We continued the meeting in the coffee shop and presented the EDG print out. We talked about the project, setbacks. Design concept, timeline, etc. Then we opened it up for questions and answers which lasted about 45 minutes. The neighbors were mostly concerned about the following:

1. Parking. We have 163 units but are providing 63 parking spaces. They are concerned about more parking in the surrounding neighborhoods, more traffic in their neighborhood specifically regarding safety of children playing in the street.
2. Community feel. They are concerned about losing the community coffee shop (Grumpy D's) and would like to see more retail and affordable commercial space for small businesses on the ground level. We discussed our live/work units and desire to retain Grumpy D for the commercial space once the building is constructed.
3. Garage Parking – concern about parking spaces backing up to the property line. Neighbors sharing property line want an aesthetically pleasing and secure fence, plus retaining wall to separate the space. We are open to a vegetation barrier.
4. Construction debris – neighbors sharing the property line are concerned about ground disturbance during construction cracking the lathe and plaster in their homes as well as dirt and debris on their homes. We will work on a plan together to remediate any such damage.

Overall, we felt the meeting was very successful and helped us get a better understanding of what concerns may come up during EDG public meeting. We think it was very helpful for the neighbors to meet us in person and for us as well. Meeting face-to-face will get us on the right track for an open and successful partnership with the neighborhood.

Hello Dorr,

Thank you for contacting me.

I'll start with the Design Review. This is part of the permit process establish by the City of Seattle. Every project over certain limits(4 residential limits) go through Design review, SEPA, MUP, Building Permit. The whole process takes more or about an year and a half. The first stage is Community outreach which we are doing now and we are heading to Early Design Guidance. At that meeting a committee, whose members you can see in the City's website will discuss our proposal. At this stage the building is more of a general layout, massing, etc. On the later stage Design Recommendation we are supposed to present the actual building. Those meetings are open to public, and you'll be notified. With that said the views of the street are somewhat "raw" more of a massing concept. We are planning to meet the zoning requirements for setbacks toward the residential properties and not ask for exemption as for example the Lillehammer building did. We may ask for exempt of the commercial floor height min of 13 ft in two of the live work units toward 15th Ave. We are going through rezoning as proposed and in concurrence with HALA provisions.

Please find attached the streetscape toward 15th and the preferred massing of the corner with 70th St. Let me know of all your questions.

Hi Diana, I'm a neighbor of your proposed development and have a couple of questions for you. First, may I trouble you for a couple of drawings of the two street views of the finished project and , secondly, would you explain the reason why you are needing to go through Design Review, what exemptions to existing code are you seeking. Thanks in advance, Dorr
